

40 hours of barley sugars

The 40 Hour Famine is coming this weekend and schools in Bulls, Turakina, Hunterville, Marton and several in Taihape area are "raising the stakes" to fight poverty, hunger and injustice for children in need.

Residents are being asked to sponsor the famine fighters in the area or leave donations in World Vision boxes at Mitre 10, Marton Bakery Café, the Marton Barber or Go Ahead Hair Design in Marton. In Bulls there is a collection box at the Wind Mill and in Taihape at the Post-Shop.

The movie The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency is being screened at Marton's Valhalla Cinema on Saturday at 1.30pm as a fundraiser.

Book tickets by calling 06 327-8448 or 06 327 6533.
